

Transport State & Control

Indicates the state of the Multi-Purpose Transport Button

Multi-Purpose Transport Button

Undo - Undo recording from last time overdub was enabled. After undo is pressed it turns into Redo

Clear - Clears the Looper

Multi-Purpose Transport Button

1st click - Start Recording
2nd click - Start Overdubbing
3rd click - Go to Play mode
More clicks - switch between Overdub and Play modes

Looper Quantization

Quantize for starting, overdubbing and playing the Looper

Drag Me!

Bar count display and drag area. Drag this area to an Audio track to get the Looper Recording as an Audio Clip

Record Length

Record a specific amount or bars. Then button will switch between Play or overdub after the pre-determined recording

Half/Double Length

Cut the buffer in half or duplicate the buffer.
Allows for different length of looping with the same Looper

Feedback

How much of the previously recorded audio will be feedback to the output

Input -> Output

Change how to monitor Looper's output

Song Control

Change this to not affect your global Live transport or Start the main transport with Looper or start and stop the main transport with Looper

Tempo Control

Change the Looper's tempo to be independent of Live's tempo. Or following Live's tempo or setting and following Live's tempo if you first start with the Looper

Speed (Pitch) & Reverse

Adjusting Speed (thus pitch) in Semitones. Use Arrow keys to change in Octaves (12 Semitones).

Reverse button will reverse the recorded audio